DISCUSSION TOPICS

A. Council's Training & Travel Stipend for the MASC Conference

Council Member Simpkins explained the present Travel Policy and would like for travel and anticipated meals be paid up front and use the $50 as they want to instead of the breakdown between breakfast - $10, lunch - $15 and dinner - $25. Attorney Spradley stated it was state statute that you have to incur the expense first then be reimbursed after receipts are presented up to what is in the ordinance. A lengthy discussion concerning the meal reimbursements was held.

B. The Idea of a 2-Year Free College Tuition for Local High School Graduates

Council Member Cain led the discussion on the idea of a 2-year free college tuition for local high school graduates.

C. Town's Employee & Procedures Manual

Manager Luckadoo stated that between 2014 and 2015 Town Council approved three changes to the Employee Policy & Procedures Manual. Each of these changes received a single reading by Council. Only later did staff learn that previous Council's had read the Employee Policy & Procedures Manual changes twice. These changes need to have a second reading to conform to Council's previous adoption method prior to 2014. We can either have a second reading on each of these individually or have a second reading on a tabled Ordinance to Repeal & Replace the Town's Employee Policy & Procedure Manual from the April 9, 2018 Regular Council Meeting and voted on. Attorney Spradley explained this in detail as to how this happened. This will be put on July's Regular Council Meeting on how to proceed, either voting individually, on all three at one time or on the tabled Ordinance, whatever is the consensus of Council.

*Council Member Hallman had to leave at 7:40 P. M.
